Certificate in Mission Practice (CMP)

The CMP programme, offered in partnership with the Anglican Diocese and Singapore Centre for Global Missions, seeks to equip short-term missionaries and lay Christian leaders with knowledge of mission for effective ministry. There are 8 modules to complete. More information can be obtained from the EQUIP Office (equip@ttc.edu.sg) or the TTC website.

The Parables of Jesus

Synopsis: This course will help participants better appreciate the meaning and impact of Jesus' parables when they were first told and to apply them for present-day Christian living. The background and framework within which we are to understand Jesus' parables will be emphasised, especially the connection with the theme of the Kingdom of God and the fulfilment of the Old Testament. Parables as a powerful vehicle for dismantling long-held assumptions in the new light of God's revelation will also be featured. It is hoped that participants may gain a better understanding of their faith and be illuminating and transforming parables to their own generation.

Dates: 4, 11, 18, 25 Jan & 8, 15, 22 Feb 2022
(7 Tuesday evenings, no class on 1 Feb)

Time: 7.30 to 9.30 pm

Missio Dei: Historical Perspectives & Holistic Perspectives

(Required course for the Certificate in Mission Practice)

Synopsis: This course surveys the expansion and development Christianity as Missio Dei (the mission of God), from both historical and holistic perspectives. The salvation and renewal of all creation, the proclamation and practice of His word, and the growth and witness of the church are essentially understood as God's mission. The first part of the course outlines the significant events/movements in the transmission of the Christian faith. The latter half of the course sketches the significant themes of holistic mission, all of which are understood as God's mission in bringing the whole Gospel to the whole world.

Christian Doctrine

(Required course for the Certificate in Mission Practice
& Local Preachers Licensing)

Synopsis: Christian doctrine is an articulation of our beliefs that shape and characterise us as the people of God. It is our collection of shared beliefs that enable us to say "This is us!" The lectures will cover the following doctrines: i) Revelation and Scripture; ii) Creation and Covenant; iii) the Trinity; iv) the Person and Work of Christ; v) Salvation; vi) the Last Things and Christian Hope; and vii) the Church. The coverage of these doctrines will be grounded in Holy Scripture, guided by Church tradition(s), and geared towards engaging contemporary issues and challenges. Students will gain a broad overview of the Christian faith and appreciate the importance of Christian doctrines for understanding our identity and spurring our practical living.
